About me

Argentine, I was born on 2nd of March of 1993 in the city of La Plata, Capital of the province of Buenos Aires. In the year 2010 I finished high school and started my Computer Engineering education, after a year I changed to Programming, which I completed the first 3 years. In the year 2020, I decided to travel and get to know new cultures.

In 2020 I lived in Copenhagen, Denmark, and in 2021 I moved to Berlin, Germany, where I currently live.

My interests are electronics, programming, renewable energies, sports such as swimming and martial arts. I also enjoy teaching and dancing tango.
